back to the center

Reading with friends

Twelve weeks, one lesson a week, with one or two friends or a few people around a kitchen table. No leader, no program, no one's permission needed.

How to meet

1. Read the lesson on your own during the week. It takes about twenty minutes. Or listen to the free audio.
2. Meet for an hour. Coffee is enough.
3. Read the center verse aloud together.
4. Work through "Talk it over." Let people disagree.
5. Each person names one thing from "Practice this week" they'll try.
6. Next time, start by asking how it went.

ONE RULE

The goal isn't to win an argument. It's to keep coming back to what he said.

MATTHEW 18:20

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them.

The twelve weeks

1	Who Is at the Center?
2	The Clearest Picture of God
3	Hearing and Doing
4	How Jesus Read the Bible
5	The Two Greatest Commandments
6	Blessed
7	Love Your Enemies
8	In Secret
9	The Least of These
10	Wealth as Blessing
11	Judging Others
12	What We Found

Free to copy and share. Volume 1 and every audio lesson are free.

by Carlos C.